FIFTY-FIFTH YEAR NO. 48.

CEDARVILLE, OHIO, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1932.

PRICE, $1.50 A YEAR

1933 BUDGET IS REDUCED TO MEET LOWER INCOME

The budget proposed for next year has been tentatively adopted by the County Commissioners, and calls for an appropriation of $227,175.60, a reduction of $56,578.20, or 19.94 per cent, from total expenditures in the county general fund, estimated for the present year. A public hearing is to be held at the court house at 10 A. M., November 12.

Of the total expenditure of $227,175.60 contemplated in the budget for next year, only $145,000 is expected to be raised by taxation on real estate, public utilities and personal property. The balance of $82,175.60 is to come from other revenue, motor vehicle tax, fees, special assessments, etc.

Real estate, public utility and personal property taxes will furnish 64.27 per cent of the total expenditures for 1933, while the other receipts will bring in 35.73 per cent, according to the commissioners.

Reductions have been made in the budget on all items except mother's pensions, blind relief, and other charity.

Salaries of elective officials and all appointive positions have been reduced 10 and 12 1-2 per cent, to correspond with reductions of elective officials that were set by the new law.

Automobile Mixup Causes Slight Injury

As a result of an auto mixup last Friday night the car of William Harrison was badly damaged on Main street when his car was hit twice and overturned. Miss Marjorie Strobbridge was an occupant of the Harrison car and received a badly sprained ankle. Harrison was injured on the arm. According to records the license on the car causing the damage had been issued to Raymond Thompson, Xenia, but he claimed he was no longer the owner of the car. The damage has since been adjusted through the efforts of Mayor Richards and Marshall McLain.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT GIVEN A VACATION

Perrin Smith, son of Louis Smith appeared before the Board of Education Monday, following an altercation during the O. S. & S. O. Home game, in which both father and son are said to have attacked Coach Orr, after he had retired the boy from the game during play. The boy is dropped from the school until Nov. 28 after which he will be reinstated upon meeting certain requirements as laid down by the board.

Western Union Held Up By Gunman

Masked bandits robbed the Xenia office of the Western Union, in the heart of the city, about 8:55 Monday night. H. J. Lane was ordered to the basement and the men took $39 from the unlocked safe. The cellar door was locked with Lane the prisoner.

To The Patrons Of Clifton School District

This statement is being made by the Board of Education to the Patrons and Friends of Clifton School District in order that they may know the exact financial condition of the school and what will happen providing the vote for Participation in the State Equalization Fund (State Aid) does not carry.

Do you know that the 3 mill levy expires this year and this makes it impossible to have State Aid farther than Jan. 1st, 1933? This means a loss of $2000.00.

Also that Clifton School District must begin again to pay high school tuition to Cedarville, which amounts to about $2,400.00 per year.

The school taxes in Clifton District amount to $2,000.00 less than former years, all of this makes a deficit of $6,400.00. Do you know also that boards of education are not permitted to operate schools unless funds are forthcoming?

THIS MEANS THAT CLIFTON SCHOOLS MUST CLOSE UNLESS THE VOTE FOR STATE AID CARRIES.

It means also that schools cannot open until sometime in 1933 and only then for as long as the money lasts.

Do you know also that the children are in danger of losing one year's schooling—they cannot pass into the next grade unless the work is done?

Do you know that the salaries of your teachers have been decreased around 15 per cent in order that the money might go as far as it would?

Do you want Clifton School to lose its standing and children to lose their school year?

If you want the State to assume this year's deficit of $6,400.00 or more if necessary, and schools to continue as they have in the past—VOTE YES on the ticket handed you for PARTICIPATION IN STATE EQUALIZATION FUND.

BOARD OF EDUCATION,
EARL W. DUNEVANT
ORVAL J. BENEDICT

W. C. T. U. NOTES

Sponsored by Cedarville W. C. T. U.

The moral obligation rests upon every state to enact concurrent legislation for the enforcement of prohibition. It is a duty which cannot honorably be escaped.

"Prohibition is the best method that has yet been devised to give effect to the sober sentiment of the nation. We have always had excellent cooperation in its enforcement." Henry Ford

Some of the domestic evils of drunkenness are houses without windows, gardens without fences, fields without ditches, barns without roofs, children without clothing, principles, morals, or manners. —Benjamin Franklin.

Neither the amendment nor the Prohibition Act undertakes to relieve the states of their responsibility relative to intoxicating liquors but, on the other hand, the amendment confers jurisdiction upon them, and the Prohibition Act authorized state and local prosecuting attorneys to bring injunction proceedings, in any court having equity powers, in the name of the United States. —Calvin Coolidge.

What the Eighteenth Amendment Has Helped America Achieve

The removal of the open saloon which encouraged gambling and degraded politics.

The reduction of the amount of consumption of alcoholic beverages by seventy per cent within a remarkably short time.

The elimination of liquor advertising which appealed to the crudest and lowest emotions to create new victims of the drinking habit.

The protection of children and their mothers from the neglect and brutality of drinking fathers.

An increase in savings has given the common man and woman in America the highest economic and social position enjoyed anywhere in the world.

The most efficient industry to be found anywhere because of the reliability and loyalty of sober working men and women.

The foundation for a future rich in privilege and opportunity for home life, for education for government, for law, for religion.

The Duty of Every Citizen

Hagar Paper Co. Sets New Tonnage Record

The month of October was the best in the history of the Hagar Straw Board & Paper Co. according to Mr. J. Lloyd Conrath. All previous records were broken, the tonnage exceeding any other month since the company started operation in 1893.

The tonnage made and finished was 669.7 with the previous record 638.1, which was made in March 1926. Trimming full 81 inch on machine was 88.4 tons.

The week ending October 22 was the largest week's production, 156 tons ready for shipment, and the largest production for any eight hour shift was during the same week and was 10.6 tons.

The new Westinghouse turbine is running from 180 to 195 feet per minute which is 30 per cent faster than formerly.

Since January 1st this company has operated 5 per cent more than the average of the straw board industry.

Orders have been received to keep the plant in full time operation during November and almost half of December the tonnage is reserved.

The new Westinghouse turbine installation of about one year ago has increased the productivity far in excess of the promises of the consulting engineers who advised with the management about its installation. Both W. W. Galloway, general manager and Mr. Conrath, assistant, are to be congratulated on breaking all previous records.

Error Corrected In Report Published

H. A. Higgins, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, was quick to correct figures in a published political statement, reflecting on the cost of operation of the auditor's office under James J. Curlett. The publication listed salaries for deputies and clerks at $9,240 instead of $6,020, which should have been given as the correct amount. The figures had been taken from a newspaper report that had the amount in error.

The correct figures, $6,020, is the lowest office hire expense since 1923. The incorrect figures were taken from a published financial statement where in the error had not been noticed. Mr. Curlett has been able to show some reduction, instead of increase, as the published report indicated.

Port William Bank Blown Monday A. M.

Robbers used three charges of explosives to break into the vault of the Port William Bank, early Monday morning, escaping with $2,500 in currency and $5,000 in securities. The interior of the banking room was badly damaged from the explosion.

Citizens say a woman waited in an automobile outside, and drove two men toward Wilmington, eight miles south. Telephone cables and also the electric light cables had been cut.

J. S. Young, assistant cashier and family watched the proceeding for a full half hour but could not use the phone for aid.

Miss Helen Thompson, accompanied by her aunt, Miss Lula Lorrimer, of Cleveland, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Thompson, parents of the former.

Governor White For Note Holiday

Governor White has proclaimed a moratorium on farm and home mortgages maturing or past due, and has announced the appointment of a statewide Farm and Home Protective Committee to form organizations in every county to co-operate with farmers and home owners under this burden.

Members of the state committee named are: A. F. Moon, acting president of the Ohio Farm Bureau; Marshall Smith, Columbus, president of the Smith Agricultural Chemical Co.; Carl Watson, Hancock county farmer; O. W. L. Coffin, secretary of the Cleveland Real Estate Board, and J. I. Falcone, department of rural economics, Ohio State University.

The purpose of the committee, one to be formed in each county, to work with the state committee, is to bring together the mortgage and mortgage of property about to be foreclosed and attempt to work out some plan of refinancing whereby the property owner may continue in possession for a sufficient time to work out his problem.

The governor says the federal government agencies are at work trying to prevent failures of railroads and other enterprises and that the owners of farms and homes should have the same opportunity. He says it is impossible for the legislature to extend time for payment of mortgages. The statewide committee will serve without pay.

CATTERLIN HELD FOR GRAND JURY INVESTIGATION

McClain Catterlin, Staunton, Ind., President of the International Corporation of Bogardus, Cox, Edwards, Baker and Springer heirs, a corporation selling certificates supposedly to finance efforts to force the liquidation of huge Eastern estates, was placed under arrest in Xenia Wednesday and has been bound over to the grand jury under $20,000 bond. Not yet having secured bond he is held in county jail.

He is charged with having embezzled $85,000 from the company, the affidavit being filed by W. R. Hiest, farmer and certificate holder. The jury was in session Wednesday under secret orders of Prosecutor McCullister, who has been working on the case for some weeks.

The State Division of Securities first started action against the company on complaint of certificate holders and an restraining order from court stopped sale of the certificates. There are about 300 people in this county and probably 3,000 or more in this section of Ohio that have been taken in by the company. It is contended that Catterlin has diverted the corporation funds to his personal account in Brazil, Ind. What money is in the account has been tied up under orders of Judge Gowan.

Some have contended for months the whole scheme was a fraud but so many owners of certificates were confident they would get in on these vast estates, they not only purchased more certificates but urged others to do the same.

President Stands For Prohibition Change

President Hoover on Wednesday in a telegram denied published reports that he had changed his views on the proposed changes in the eighteenth amendment since his acceptance speech.

The President made it plain that he still stands for states having liquor with protection to other states that do not want it and no return of the spirit saloon.

Julius Fleischmann, of a family of Cincinnati distillers in days gone by, says in reference to the prohibition change advocated by the President:

"I repeat that, in my judgment President Hoover's plan is the only workable one. It is practical and is designed for much prompter action than the impractical promises expressed in the Democratic platform."

TARIFF BALLYHOO FOR NAUGHT

Both Republican and Democratic campaign speakers have been shouting much about the tariff, each trying to make it appear that one is answering the other; and each trying to inform its followers as to which is right. Neither are discussing the fundamental principle of a tariff that is of vital interest to American agriculture and industry. The whole tirade is what the street urchin calls—bologna.

The Republicans are trying to sugar-coat a bad mess of their own creation. The Democrats of course are having no trouble picking flaws in it, and neither offering a single ray of hope to a suffering business nation for a chance to right conditions. We need to point to the proof of that assertion by only referring to the gradual decline of the stock market. And who would take a chance for speculation or investment on such a situation? Both may for a time blind and fool the electors in a campaign but hard-headed business men are deciding for themselves and that decision is not going to be favorable to either political party as the tariff is now discussed.

We have pointed out more than once that world conditions are not what they were twenty years ago. The days of free trade with foreign nations seem to have vanished and the world markets are now closed to our farm and industrial products with a higher tariff wall than this nation established. This gives the U. S. A. a new problem but leaders of each of the dominant parties are trying to apply the old rules.

The New York Times, the leading newspaper in this nation and read by more business people directly interested in finance, manufacturing and merchandising, than any two daily papers published in the country, supports a reciprocal tariff to remedy the situation and get foreign markets open where farm and industrial products can find a market. The Times says in the Tuesday issue: "The trade agreements recently concluded at Ottawa, to the great disadvantage of American exporters, were based on substantial preferences within the British Empire. Similar treaties have been proposed, on the Continent of Europe. The Ministry of Commerce has recommended that abandon all of her present commercial treaties and remake them on a basis of reciprocity. Sixteen countries, including such important trading nations as Germany, Argentina and the Netherlands, have notified the British Government of their desire to negotiate reciprocal agreements. If the United States wishes to stand aside, to ignore what is happening in the rest of the world and to lose opportunities to sell its goods in foreign markets, it is privileged to follow such a course. But if we hope to obtain real advantage in international trade, we must be prepared to offer something in exchange."

The Times is speaking in the interest of restoring business, not the advancement of any political party that would toy with the livelihood of our people for partisan advantage. To hear President Hoover, he is the only living person that can put "new wine in old bottles"; and to hear Candidate Roosevelt he is the only living person that can put "old wine in new bottles." The President being in power carries the greatest responsibility but seems content to sit back and watch Canada and England take the cream of the world's business—while 11 million men and women in this country are without jobs and industry paralyzed.

HAVE WE LOST ALL SENSE OF REASON?

While the nation is suffering financial ills, mostly due to the moratorium granted Germany, and adopted by other credit nations of this country, now comes Gov. White in the heat of a campaign trying to enforce by more or less volunteer methods, for he nor even the President of the United States can set aside the provisions of the constitution or statutory law, to provide a moratorium for farm and home owners that cannot meet their financial obligations. The moratorium has been the greatest curse inflicted on the people of any nation that boasted of its high standard of business ethics and respect for fundamental law. It has been the breeding place that all who cared might conceive the idea that individual debts could wait just like that of nations.

No one can have any more heart-felt sympathy for those heavily burdened with debt that was created under a period of inflation and must now be paid with deflated money. If such a rule as proposed by Gov. White could be worked out as a private transaction no one could object, all parties interested being satisfied. But to make the moratorium a public issue with a semi-quasi public board to hear such cases is beyond all rule of reason. We have no hesitancy in saying that much of our present situation is directly due to the German moratorium and the hundreds of millions loaned that country, depleting our financial structure in this country. The only interests benefited with the German moratorium were that of our international bankers.

The adoption of the White moratorium, if it became widespread, and we see no method to hold it in check, it will wreck every savings bank and building and loan in Ohio. It is easy to attract attention and sympathy from those now in financial distress, but who is there to speak for the hundreds of thousands of Ohioans that are not in debt and have their money deposited in these savings banks and building and loans? It is their hard earned money that is at stake and seldom do we hear of anyone being interested in their cause. But there is—the board of directors that will follow sound judgment and stand by the laws of the state, in respect of a president or governor's moratorium. These men have a moral and legal responsibility that cannot be shunned. We have always opposed the German moratorium. We still oppose such acts for it has a damning influence and creates an erroneous impression that even those able have as much right to delay debt payment as those unable to pay.

A LONG, SLOW AND PAINFUL RECOVERY

Many are of the opinion that we will all wake up some morning shortly after November 8th, walk out into the bright sunlight and find on the front doorstep—Prosperity, back where we were previous to the debacle in October 1929. If all dreams came true that would be our first wish but such things do not come that way. Nation's Business in the current issue has the following which is well worth while:

"If President Hoover is reelected, business will continue on a long, slow, and frequently painful recovery."

"If Governor Roosevelt is elected, business will continue on a long, slow, and frequently painful recovery."

"The temper of Congress is perhaps more important to business than is the complexion of the President . . . The real friend or foe of business is the Congress."

A whole nation is much excited over who is to be the next president. We are told 47 million people will have the legal right to cast a vote Tuesday, and probably not ten per cent of that number will give individual attention to the choice of the proper man for Congress or the United States Senate. It is in the legislative halls that we will find the friend or foe of business. Most of these legislators will be chosen whether they are wet or dry, whether they will stand hitherto under orders of a political dictator, or bow to the unscrupulous lobbyist that has some pet measure to put over to the advantage of those he represents.

It is fitting and proper that Americans pay the highest respect to both the President and his high office—but we have a far more important duty in using care in the selection of who is to help make our laws for it is these laws that the President must be guided by. There was a time some years ago when it was regarded a patriotic duty to serve the nation in Congress, but of recent years our politics has become so degraded, that a seat in the legislative branch of the government is only a political job, the holder of the seat being a "punch and Judy" character, operated with a string by an unseen hand.

With the election less than a week away we may next expect to hear the predictions from the leaders of the major parties as to results next Tuesday. If results are based on as wild claims and promises from each side as has been made in the campaign, one may expect to hear of most anything. Two factors show the drift of sentiment, the straw votes, and the way Wall street bets are made. It is a peculiar thing to hear some people refer to the straw votes. When the vote favors their candidate they are quick to quote the straw vote results. For instance four years ago when the vote strongly favored Hoover against Al Smith, Hooverists had great faith in the straw vote. This year every vote in the country shows Roosevelt the favorite, and Hoover supporters are inclined to question it. But the fact remains that the straw vote has never failed.

Betting in New York is 16 to 5 that Roosevelt will be elected. Both of 2 to 1 that Roosevelt will carry New York state. 2 to 1 to one that Roosevelt will win Hoover's home state of California. Even money that Hoover will not carry eight states in the election.

Less than three months ago Wall Street was laying "wagers at 3 to 1 in Hoover's election. Since the campaign has gone into full swing the banking and brokerage houses have flipped to Roosevelt. However the billion-dollar international bankers are still for Hoover.

Saving the farmer is a favorite past time with the politicians, but this is all being done before the election. After the election it is everybody for himself. To hear some of the radio twaddle about what has been done to save farms for owners makes us still more confident that Barnum had the right appraisal of the sucker list. We hear much that the Hoover administration has done in the way of saving farms from foreclosure. This is as empty as the air that carries the story. Take a look about you in your own county. Did the administration save a farm sold under foreclosure a few days ago that lies east of town? What about five other farms in the southern part of the county all sold last week and under a federal land bank? After election every farmer that is delinquent on his note will save himself. The office seeking list making such promises now will have other duties after the election. Just such deceptive statements are going to be a big surprise to thousands after November 8th. No President of the United States, no matter who he is, or any governor, can set aside the statutes or change fundamental principles.

Henry Ford and Gene Tunney have come more in public prominence with in the past week than formerly. The former industrialist that gets his tractors made in Ireland on cheap labor and imported into this country free of any tariff, has taken a public stand and urged his men to vote for Hoover. Gene Tunney, noted sportsman of the boxing arena, has been campaigning in sporting circles for Roosevelt. The joke on both Ford and Tunney is that neither will get to vote in their respective states for both failed to register.

The American Legion has been the object of much ridicule during the campaign. A New York organization headed by high war or aviation officers drawing pensions from the government, having seen service before the World War, now attack the Legion as a tax eating organization that is causing more harm than the depression. The American Legion has issued a broadside bulletin denying the charge with the injunction that "The time to meet and expose the character of these attacks now!" The broadside widely distributed among all veterans shows the National Economy League to compose many notables for the cancellation of war debts in the interest of our international bankers. The millionaire income tax payers are included as being opposed to the Legion in this movement. Campaign speakers are attacking the Legion but never say the administration loaned many million to Germany to pay her soldiers and now plead poverty for our own boys. Had these millions been paid to the Legion and closed the bonus question home markets would have been aided. Thousands now dependent and out of jobs are on charity at the expense of those having positions. The administration to balance the budget, part of which was caused by Germany refusing to pay her loans or interest, put a tax on electric light bills, gasoline, automobiles, etc. The German soldiers were paid with our money and our boys told to wait, cold and hungry.

The Cincinnati Times-Star has been taking a straw vote within Hamilton county, sending a double post-card to every twelfth registered voter. The comment on some of the cards returned read such as this: "Neither one any good." In regard to candidates for president. Another was: "I've been fooled long enough. Won't vote for anyone." Less than half a dozen cards were returned by "Communists."

anyone." Less than half a dozen cards were returned by "Communists."

Those who have been taking much interest in reduction of public salaries will have the opportunity soon of placing a knotty problem to Sen. S. D. Fess. The Senator is to make a talk next Monday night in Xenia and those interested in the reduction of public salaries might suggest that he discuss that feature in his campaign discussion. In view of the recent publication of members of families of senators and congressmen on the federal payroll, it would be interesting to hear what the Senator has to say about his daughter-in-law, a resident of Toledo, being on the government payroll, while residing with her husband and family in Toledo. An effort was made in the last session of congress to make the practice illegal but the bill was defeated—as might have been expected. Prosperity still has a place in the life of a senator at $12,000 a year and a congressman at $10,000, with all expenses. In comparison school teachers should be drafted to work for nothing that prosperity can be a part of the life of senators and congressmen and their families.

You will be given a chance to vote on whether Ohio shall have a constitutional convention at the polls Tuesday. You can vote "Yes" or "No." But do you have any information of the subject to base a vote one way or another? The old rule of "When in doubt vote 'No'" never fails. If a majority of electors favor a convention delegates will be chosen in November 1933 and the convention will be held in January, 1934. What ever amendments are agreed upon must be submitted to the electors for approval in November 1934. The constitution for the state was first adopted in 1851 and amendments were adopted in 1875, 1885, 1893 and 1905, all being of minor importance. In 1910 the electors voted for a change and it was held in 1912. 42 proposed amendments were submitted to the people and 34 were approved. Since that time other amendments have been written into the constitution, the most important one, being that on prohibition. There are many reasons why we should have another convention. For instance our senatorial districts are out of line by population, having been in use for 81 years. It would be the opportunity of consolidating many state departments and changes in all county government for economy. The courts need revision, for instance one court in one district holds a law unconstitutional and in another district it is held constitutional. Do away with the grand jury, now a needless expense. The legislature instead of having two houses, only one. Elect governors for four years and one term only. Elimination of one half of our present elective expenses. Consolidation of rural counties where the people desire it for economy. Return to the electorate the power it once had by abolishing most all commissions, now meeting places for politicians. A number of reasons can be listed why we should have another convention but only the voters have the say.

The election Tuesday will attract more voters than any time in the history of the nation from all reports. It is reported from registration figures that 47,000,000 persons are to be at the polls. Four years ago 42 million were registered but only 63 million voted. In Ohio this year 2,550,000 are entitled to vote. Four years ago 2,750,000 were registered but only 2,508,343 voted. With 11 million persons out of employment it appears that most of them intend to vote. The average normal stay-at-home vote is 15 per cent but this year it is predicted this percentage will be greatly reduced. Ohio had a gain of 500,000 in registrations; Wisconsin, 620,000; California, 675,000; New York, 340,000; Indiana, 325,000.

There was a time when business indexed by how the stock market stood. Today there seems to be no public confidence in Wall Street. It might also be said the country was so near broke there were few left that could purchase stocks and bonds. Again who wants to purchase stocks and bonds when most of them do not pay dividends? That big boom set for the stock market just before the election seems to have faded. The market slips a little each day and is now where it was along last June with many stocks. As low as stocks are at this time, the re-adjustment period has not arrived. Behind the curtain is the program of reorganization that must come to squeeze out the water.

Hogs and wheat have traveled the same road as stocks and bonds. It was only a few days ago that wheat reached a new low, where it had been 800 years ago when Queen Elizabeth held the reigns. "Lib" must have had a federal farm board in her day. If the wheat farmer has had an encouraging note from all of the political speeches on how to restore what we have not heard about. The lowly pig has set a new low, top being $2.85 in St. Paul a few days ago. Farmers are finding it hard to get a market anywhere for hogs. Our first wealth came from the soil in agriculture, mines and timber. Pouring money into certain channels that will never reach agriculture is but continuing our present economic troubles. At least calculate the time yet required for re-adjustment is estimated from two to five years. Can we survive that much of a span?

GEORGE P. HENKEL FOR SHERIFF

 2. Reduction in the operating cost of the Sheriff's office.
 3. To work out some plan of operation that will protect the farmer from petty thievery.

4. To give prompt and courteous service when called.
 5. Cooperation with the Xenia Police Department and all Constables and Marshals in the county.
 6. Square and fair treatment to all concerned.

If elected the Democratic Executive Committee will be consulted in regard to my appointments.

GUM-DIPPED CORDS
 The Firestone patented Gum-Dipping process transforms the cotton cords into a strong, tough, slinky unit. Liquid rubber penetrates every cord and coats every fiber, guarding against internal friction and heat, greatly increasing the strength of the cord body, and giving longer life.

TWO EXTRA GUM-DIPPED CORD PLIES UNDER THE TREAD
 This is a patented construction, and the two extra Gum-Dipped cord plies are so placed that you get 56% stronger bond between tread and cord body, and tests show 26% greater protection against punctures and blowouts. It sets a new standard for the performance on high speed runs.

NON-SKID TREAD
 Tough, live rubber specially compounded for long, slow wear. Scientifically designed non-skid gives greater traction and safe, quiet performance.

After the reading of the minutes and other business, the regular program followed. Mrs. J. S. West read a well prepared paper on "Observance and Enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment—Not Repeal. Her paper covered many interesting phases of this topic as they apply today.

"What another World War would mean," a paper by Mrs. Karl Bull, pictured the horrors of the last World War. A vivid picture of another conflict with the modernized engines of destruction, chemical and electrical devices, would make the last war one of toy play compared to what the nations could produce for the future contest.

Miss Esther Waddle gave two readers which were well received. The members and guests then enjoyed a social hour, during which refreshments were served.

A candidate with 20 years' experience in Record work. The receipts of the Recorder's office for the year 1931 fell off $858.35, but it cost more to operate the Recorder's office in 1931 than any year in the history of Greene County. The same applies to the present year 1932.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

(BY REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, C. 1932, Western New England Union.)

Lesson for November 6

THE CHRISTIAN AND WORLD PEACE

Psalm 22:27, 28; Psalm 118:1-7; Psalm 124:1-4; Isaiah 2:1-4; Matthew 23:1-12; Ephesians 2:13-18; Colossians 3:12-15. Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God. Matthew 5:9. PRIMARY TOPIC—Peace and Good Will Among Men. JUNIOR TOPIC—Our Part in Making World Peace. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Why Work for World Peace. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Christian Duty to Promote World Peace.

The Scripture selections for today's lesson are vital, but in the settings given by the lesson committee will be decidedly misused through the appearing of the Prince of Peace, and the establishing of His Messianic kingdom. Clearness here is imperative.

I. The Lord, the Ruler of the Nations (Ps. 22:27, 28).

The present unhappy conditions in the world are a result of the failure of the nations to recognize Jesus Christ. As long as the peoples of the earth refuse allegiance to Jesus Christ and are swayed by the gods of their own creation and lust, there will be war and bloodshed.

II. How Gladness is to Come to the Nations (Ps. 68:1-7). This is to be realized by the assertion of divine power. When God arises:

1. The enemies will be scattered (vv. 1, 2). They shall be put to flight before the Lord God Omnipotent. Two figures are used: smoke dispersed by the blast, and wax melted by the heat. The wicked shall perish before the whirlwind and fire of divine power.

2. Happiness will prevail among the righteous (vv. 3-4). The rule of the Lord will bring rejoicing on the part of the people of God.

III. The Character of Christ's Reign (Ps. 72:1-10).

This Psalm describes the glorious reign of Christ upon the earth. It is that reign for which we pray when we say "Thy kingdom come."

1. It will be a reign of righteousness (vv. 1-4). Justice and equity shall be meted out to all.

2. It will be an ascending reign (vv. 5-7).

3. It will be a universal kingdom (vv. 8-11). All kings shall fall down before him, and all nations shall serve him.

4. It will be a beneficent reign (vv. 12-14). Christ, the King, will have compassion upon the weak who are unable to help themselves.

5. It will be a prosperous kingdom (vv. 15-17). Full blessing shall then come to the earth. There shall be no depression at that time.

IV. Israel's Spiritual and National Position (Isa. 2:1-4).

This scripture pictures the place of Israel which shall be exercised by Israel in this time.

1. When shall it be? (v. 2). "In the last days." By last days is usually meant in Scripture, the times of the Messiah, for this is the primary subject of all prophecy.

2. What shall it be? (v. 2). The restoration of the kingdom of Judah to the place of pre-eminence among the nations of the world. This vision of Zion's glory refers to the millennium age, at which time other nations of the world will learn of the truth of God through the chosen nation.

3. The result (vv. 2-4). The return of God's favor to this chosen people shall be "life from the dead" to the nations of the earth (Rom. 11:15).

4. Nations shall flow unto it (v. 2). This pictures the masses of the people moving toward Jerusalem.

5. Nations shall encourage each other (v. 3). Jealousies will be forgotten, and each will move to Jerusalem to be taught of God.

6. Peace in the earth (v. 4). When Israel shall be in her God-appointed place with Jesus Christ as King, wars will be over.

V. The King's Great Commission (Matt. 28:18-20).

1. The royal authority (v. 18). By virtue of his divine authority he issues this commandment to the disciples and declares that all power in heaven and earth has been given unto him.

2. The commission itself (vv. 19, 20).

a. To teach all nations.

b. To baptize them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

c. To teach them to observe all of Christ's commandments (v. 20). Those who obey Christ in carrying out this commission shall enjoy his abiding presence.

PREDICTED A WINNER IN ELECTION TUESDAY

W. R. McCHESNEY

According to those who have been active in the political affairs of the county, predictions are being freely made that Dr. W. R. McChesney, candidate for State Representative on the Republican ticket, will lead both national and state tickets, when the votes are counted Tuesday next week. Few men in the county have a wider acquaintance and reputation in educational and church circles in the county than has Dr. McChesney. Your X before his name will give you a part in this great victory, Tuesday next.

Greene County Commissioners

Refute Statements Made By Greene County Democrat Executive Committee

The Democratic executive Committee in a campaign publication distributed over Greene County, printed an article in reference to collateral deposits to secure the account of county funds in the Commercial and Savings Bank which is both false and misleading and in as much as we are named in the article we wish to give the facts as shown by the record of the Commissioner's office which is open to public inspection. The facts are as follows:

There has never been any U. S. Bonds or South American bonds so deposited, and before first mortgages on real estate were accepted as collateral there was on file with the Board of County Commissioners, the written opinion of the Attorney General that such deposit was legal.

When the Commercial Bank closed January 29th, 1932, County Funds on deposit in the bank were $74,061.25 which was secured by collateral in the sum of $80,278.05 consisting of Surety Bonds, by hypothecated bonds and first mortgages on real estate in Greene County.

On such collateral coming due since the bank closed the sum of $26,270.89 has been collected leaving now due on said deposits $47,790.36 and secured by collateral in the sum of $72,031.65 in Greene County.

On such collateral coming due since the bank closed the sum of $26,270.89 has been collected leaving now due on said deposits $47,790.36 and secured by collateral in the sum of $72,031.65. From present information it is probable that the first dividend of 50 percent will be paid on the accounts of the bank which would amount to $37,311.12 leaving a balance of $10,759.24 secured by $72,031.65 of collateral.

In the same publication was also printed an article concerning the State appropriation for charities which was as misleading as the above named article.

Up until this time there are no State funds immediately available for Greene County for charitable purposes excepting as the county might issue bonds in anticipation of such funds which funds will be distributed regularly to each county as we understand about February 15th, 1933, and each succeeding year without the issuing of bonds or making any special application for same.

Under these conditions our Board has not felt that we would be justified in issuing bonds at present, since this money is already allotted to our county and will be distributed when the proper time arrives.
